I perform work in confined space. The last time I did work in a confined space was about 22-8 1-24 3.
Trade Secret 22-8 1-24 3 in Trade Secret 22-8 1-24 3 We put a basking in the bottom of tank. They clean the tank, will fill our paperwork, get our sniffer and our tripod and extraction equipment. I have not got any abnormal readings. If the beeper goes off we get out. We keep the sniffer in the shop. We do a bump test on them everytime we use it. Trade Secret 22-8 1-24 3 also has sniffers on the wall which are the same as the ones in Trade Secret 22-8 1-24 3 an outside contractor maintains the sniffers in Trade Secret 22-8 1-24 3 and Trade Secret 22-8 1-24 3 the were two maintenance guys replacing the basking-only one entry. is making sure nothing happens to me, watching the sniffer and he works the extraction equipment if he needs to get me out. We already have the Fire Dept on notification. We are are now emergency rescue trained. so if we have an emergency we have to contact the fire department. We run the sniffer the entire time we are in the space. We use cell phones to contact the fire department in an emergency. We have two numbers. 911 is the number to use in an emergency. We call a different number to call when we call to put them on alert that we are going into the space. The number goes to Wayne Twp. dispatch who I believe contacts the nearest fire dept. so we contact Wayne Twp afterwards to let them know that we are finished. We probably been doing this procedure about 5-6 years now. The equipment is in [REDACTED]

Appendix F
CSHO Guidance for Employee Interviews

This appendix contains some questions that may assist CSHOs during employee interviews. This is not a specific questionnaire, but these questions may help to assess possible health issues in employees in the flavoring manufacturing industry. The questions do not need to be asked verbatim, but the topics can guide the interview. It is very important to ask employees questions about a history of cough or breathing problems, and specifically ask if employees have ever been diagnosed with airways obstruction or bronchiolitis obliterans. Please be aware that the answers to some of these questions may contain privileged medical information, which must be maintained in such a manner as to ensure employee confidentiality. The CSHO should also inform the employee that he/she is not a medical professional and cannot provide medical advice, diagnosis, or treatment to the employee. The CSHO can provide the letter in Appendix B for the employee to take to his/her physician.
